The New Year's Most Joyous Celebration Returns to Vancouver!

VANCOUVER, BC: Glorious music, gorgeous costumes, and elegant dance. For more than 25 years, Salute to Vienna New Year's Concert has combined these elements to create an unforgettable New Year's celebration that continues to enchant and delight audiences across North America.

The exuberant music of Johann Strauss and his turn-of-the-century counterparts is brought to vibrant life in a dazzling spectacle inspired by Austria's famous Neujahrskonzert, which is broadcast annually on New Year's Day to millions of viewers worldwide.

Freshly updated with a new cast and musical programme, Salute to Vienna New Year's Concert will return to the Orpheum Theatre on New Year's Day. Maestro Gregory Vajda (Budapest), an expert in Viennese music, will lead the Strauss Symphony of Canada featuring the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra and the audience on a musical journey filled with heart and humour. Arias and duets from jubilant, comedic operettas will be performed by soprano Monika Rebholz (Vienna) and tenor Brian Cheney (New York), and beautifully costumed performers from the Budapest Dance Ensemble will enhance
