The New Year's Most Joyous Celebration Returns to New Brunswick!

NEW BRUNSWICK, NJ: Glorious music, gorgeous costumes, and elegant dance. For more than 25 years, Salute to Vienna New Year's Concert has combined these elements to create an unforgettable New Year's celebration that continues to enchant and delight audiences across North America.

The exuberant music of Johann Strauss and his turn-of-the-century counterparts is brought to vibrant life in a dazzling spectacle inspired by Austria's famous Neujahrskonzert, which is broadcast annually on New Year's Day to millions of viewers worldwide.

Freshly updated with a new cast and musical programme, Salute to Vienna New Year's Concert will return to State Theatre New Jersey on New Year's Eve. Maestro Alastair Willis (London), an expert in Viennese music, will lead the Strauss Symphony of America and the audience on a musical journey filled with heart and humor. Arias and duets from jubilant, comedic operettas will be performed by soprano Micaëla Oeste (Berlin) and tenor Martin Piskorski (Vienna), and beautifully costumed performers from Europaballett
