SALUTE TO VIENNA NEW YEAR'S CONCERT RETURNS TO LOS ANGELES TO RING IN 2023 IN CLASSIC STYLE

Monday, January 2, 2023 at 2:30 p.m.
Walt Disney Concert Hall

(Los Angeles)—For more than two decades, the annual Salute to Vienna New Year's Concert has delighted audiences across the U.S. and Canada with glorious music and dance, and elegant costumes. After a pandemic hiatus, the festive production returns to Walt Disney Concert Hall in Los Angeles this holiday season on Monday, January 2, 2023 at 2:30 p.m. Inspired by the annual Viennese New Year's Concert tradition, Salute to Vienna is a delightful celebration featuring music by Johann Strauss and his contemporaries, performed by singers, dancers, and a full orchestra.

Tickets ($49-150) are on sale now at the Walt Disney Concert Hall box office, via phone at 323.850.2000 or online at musiccenter.org.

"We are so pleased to be able to return this remarkable production to nine U.S. cities this year," said producer Attila Glatz. "It brings us such joy to see how these performances can uplift and inspire audiences, and we hope that families of all ages will be able to enjoy ringing in the new year in such an iconic space as Walt Disney Concert Hall!"

Viennese conductor Nir Kabaretti leads the Strauss Symphony of America, British soprano Juliet Petrus, Mexican tenor Jorge Garza, champion ballroom dancers, and members of the San Diego Ballet in an enchanting and exuberant musical journey filled with heart and humor.

Waltzes, polkas, and songs from comic operetta are the stars of this unforgettable, lighthearted production that will usher in 2023 with merriment for audiences of all ages.
